

C-MOTION products

The Wireless Lens Control system is ready for delivery now. The following configurations are available:

Wireless Lens Control System - BASIC

for the control of focus, iris, zoom and camera run

Advantages:

- ergonomic, easy handling
- optional cable connection
- long operating time (11 hours)
- little weight
- optional integration of modules by other manufacturers (Preston, Scorpio, Arri, Denz)
- if desired, extensively expandable (camera control, display for lens and / or camera information)

camin (camera interface)

Modules:

- camin Camera interface to be mounted on the camera. This light-weight is used for communicating with camera and motors
- cmobile-A hand held unit, used as a single unit or connected with a second part

cdisplay

Wireless Lens Control System - ADVANCED

for the control of focus, zoom iris and camera run with integrated lens information display. IN addition to the advantages of the BASIC system, this system features the following further advantages:

- a clearly arranged display, which can be easily configured
- flexible display, which can be connected
  - wireless - stand alone (with integrated radio module)
  - wireless - in combination with cmobile
  - connected on the camin via cable

cmobile with cdisplay

- display of the lens information

- in combination with ALL cameras
- in combination with ALL lenses
- WIRELESS
- no contact problems with the lenses
- long operation time
- economic price

Do not hesitate to contact us, for more details and answers to your questions.